

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AgentHR Becomes A NAPS Corporate Partner

Partnership Enhances Tools & Resources for Independent Recruiters.

ATLANTA, GA – January 24, 2006 – AgentHR, Inc. (www.agentrecruiting.com) is pleased to announce its partnership with the National Association of Personnel Services (NAPS) as a Corporate/Alliance Member. As a corporate member, all AgentHR Agents receive a full membership to NAPS, which includes discounts on training, certifications and other valuable recruiting tools and resources. Also, AgentHR holds a seat on the 16 member board.

“AgentHR and NAPS share the same vision for empowering the independent recruiter while also providing them a collective voice,” said Robert Brennan, CEO of AgentHR, Inc. “AgentHR and NAPS are dedicated to ensuring recruiters the support, tools and services they need to be successful.”

“The visibility, accountability and credibility of our industry just took a step in the right direction,” stated Conrad Taylor, President of NAPS. “We welcome the alliance with AgentHR and know that together we will have an impact on our industry. In a business environment driven by SOX and HIPPA and the “Impending Crisis” of skills/people shortage, maintaining current awareness of employment laws and best practices is critical. This alliance will assure a preparedness for our future.”

About AgentHR, Inc.

AgentHR is the first recruiting services company to combine the support & tools of a professional agency, the national branding of a franchise and the freedom & profitability of being independent into a single business solution for veteran recruiters & staffing professionals. AgentHR has been successfully providing 100% support, powerful tools and centralized branding for Agent Recruiters nationwide since 1998.

About NAPS

The National Association of Personnel Services (NAPS) has been the staffing industry educator since 1961 and enjoys its reputation as the oldest industry association. NAPS continues to maintain the position as the search and staffing industry educator through their certification program, continuing education initiatives, eLearning and their Annual Conference.
